International Association of Prosecutors

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

Communication Manager

Closing date: 14 February 2020

The International Association of Prosecutors (IAP) is hiring a Communication Manager to effectively develop and improve communication and to increase the awareness of the IAP brand through internal and external communication.

The IAP is an international community of prosecutors committed to setting and raising standards of professional conduct and ethics for Prosecutors worldwide; promoting the rule of law, fairness, impartiality and respect for human rights and improving international co-operation to combat crime. The IAP is a non-governmental and non-political organisation and it is the first and only worldwide organisation of prosecutors. The Association represents over 300,000 prosecutors in nearly 180 different countries and territories

Location:	The Hague, The Netherlands
Start Date:	As soon as possible
Working language:	Fluency in spoken and written English is essential
Salary:	45.000 – 55.000 EUR per annum, depending on qualifications
Closing date:	14 February 2020
Hours:	Full-time employment

We are looking for a person who;

- 1) is driven by the further development of our International Association and creating better value for our members worldwide
- 2) has an in-depth understanding of the sources of brand equity with the object of defining and using optimal brand strategies and effective communication to achieve the collective vision of the association,
- 3) knows how to act on and measure performance with the desire to become clearer on the actions that work and who can use experience gained to develop new ideas and activities.
- 4) enjoys executing the strategy and delivering results daily.

We offer employment in an innovative Association that expands rapidly and has ambitious growth targets, which we intend to meet through interdisciplinary teamwork between motivated and highly skilled workers. The contributions and efforts of a Communication Manager are crucial to our continued success. The IAP work environment is global yet flexible, cross functional, multi-cultural and switches between being exciting, varied and challenging, overall providing great opportunities for professional and personal development. The IAP values team performances but we also recognise the individual strengths brought to the team by each player and those strengths supported by the team leading to great results.

How to apply; if you think the above sounds of interest to you, please send your application and CV along with a motivation letter to the IAP Secretariat at info@iap-association.org. For more information about the role or recruitment process, please contact the Executive Director of the IAP, Janne Holst Hübner ed@iap-association.org.
